Tips and Ethics

OPRD supports the American Birding Association (ABA) Principles of Birding Ethics. Please remember that the welfare of the birds depends in large part on all of us. Visit <http://www.aba.org/> for more info.

Listening is the key to good birding. Let your ears guide you to the birds even if you cannot yet identify the songs or calls.

Being slow and quiet will allow you to approach the birds more closely.

Stay on designated trails so as to encourage the birds to feel safe in our forest.

Be patient and persistent in your quest to see field marks.
