

Tape Here ↕

Put a brick in the toilet to reduce water every time you flush

A beaver's dam creates its own ecosystem
 Beaver
A leaky faucet wastes 20 gallons of water per day
 START

Moles have long snouts for sniffing out worms.	 Coyote	You discover a snag!
You took a hike at Tryon Creek. Move forward two spaces.	Cross the bridge!	You discover a beaver dam at Tryon Creek. Go forward one space.
 Deer		Banana slugs have up to 27,000 teeth on its very long tongue
You got caught in a spider web. Lose a turn.		Deer can swim across a lake or river at 10 mph.

Tape Here ↕

The Watershed Adventure Game

Created by: PSU Environmental Education Fall 2010

↵ Tape Here

An owl can hear a mouse from sixty feet away

Owl

Cross the bridge!

Salmon smelt live in fresh water for up to 3 years before they migrate to the ocean.

- How to Play!
1. Borrow a die from another game.
  2. Cut out the raindrop game pieces.
  3. Have fun learning about the watershed and conservation

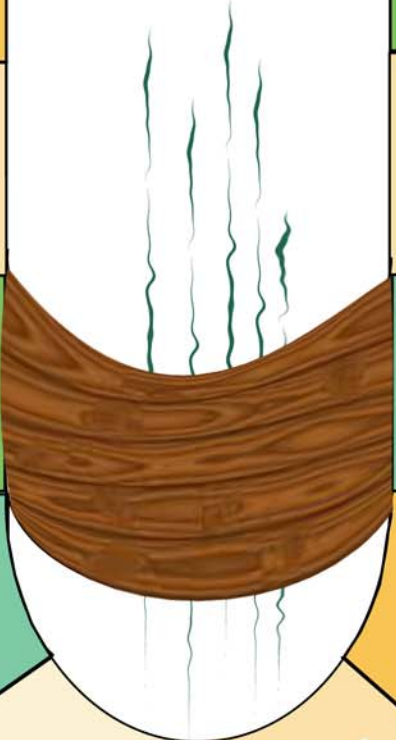

Plant a tree. Go forward two spaces.

Take shorter showers to conserve water.

You used pesticides move back one space.

Bobcat

Kitchen Faucet is leaking. Go back one space.

Look for Woodpeckers.

You brushed your teeth with the water running. Move back one space.

Salmon can swim over one thousand miles in the ocean in search of food.

FINISH

↵ Tape Here